Manufacturer's Sample Boots & Shoes.

Cost 15 to 25 per cent. more to manufacture than regular stock—the workman are paid extra for the care and pains they take in making them and the stock is selected from the very best hides regardless of cost, and so taken all in all a sample boot or shoe will ordinarily give twice the amount of wear that regular goods will. And besides, there being only one pair of a kind and all one size they are sold as a and at a discount of 25 to 33 per cent.

JOB LOT

For years the sharp shrewd retail Yankee shoe dealers in the near by towns to Boston have been gobbling up all of these goods and our people have never had the advantage or opportunity of buying samples. So this season we determined we would get some of this pie for our customers and to that end, we visited scores of manufacturers with the sole purpose of buying their sample boots and shoes and succeeded in picking up about 300 pairs. Unlined Calf, kip and oil Grain, plain and box toe, pegged and sewed Farmers and laborers Shoes all 8's and 9's. Choice of this entire lot only $1.50, not a pair worth less than $2.00.

100 pairs Veal and kip plain and box toe boots all 9's for $2.50 and $3.00 not a pair worth less than $3.50.

These two lots were all we would pick up this season, and they won't last long—so come early. Next season we promise you more.

CATCHING MENHADEN.

How 100,000 of the Fishes Were Taken at One Point of the Season.

When well to the windward of the maroon water, describing a fishing expedition of the coast, the captain cried "Break away!" and off the little craft started, the mate merrily pulling in one direction and the mate in the other, the same time falling between the boats and gradually spreading in the water.

When a little over 100 yards apart the captain waved his hands and then both of the boats turned at right angles and were rowed to the other end of the maroon water, between 300 and 400 feet distant. That point reached, the boats were turned again, and with oars splashing in the water to scare the fish toward the impalpable wall at the other end of the maroon stretch, rowed toward each other.

When they met the wall was complete. Then the "tom," a heavy lead weight, was thrown out and the net was sunk 100 feet to its full depth. Even then the fish sometimes dove beneath the deep barrier, and more or less escaped in that way. When the "tom" had been dropped the men began to pull on lines run through the lower portion of the net, and in a few minutes the fish were being hauled in.

When the fish were hauled in, they were found to be in the best of health, and were sold for 10 cents a bushel.

ABOUT CONSUMPTION.

It is one of the commonest causes of death in this country.

It is a curious fact that butchers are almost exempt from consumption. If we remember that their shops are airy and open, and that they are abundantly fed on animal food, and that from eating meat they are rapidly driving about in the open air, taking much exercise, and living well, we shall be able to understand the influences which prevent the access of chest affections. These conditions of open-air exercise and high feeding are in fact antagonistic to consumption. It must not be supposed that we are urging all threatened consumptives to become butchers, but their mode of life might be imitated with advantage. This is one of the commonest causes of lung mischief. In many cases it is not the only exciting cause, but often it is the chief and most deadly of several deleterious influences to which workmen are exposed. The mortality amongst them employed in many dusty occupations is simply enormous. We are told few men who enter certain rooms in cotton factories ever live to attain to the age of thirty-eight. Out of twenty-seven men in a certain factory, twenty-five died within a few years. The noxious influences of variolous, turpentine and drying oils in developing consumption is well known. Chest affections are by no means infrequent among artisans who use solvents, such as turpentine, benzine, coppermiths and goldsmiths. Woodturners and those whose work necessitates the use of sand-paper, are usually great sufferers. Many plans have been devised for preventing the entrance of dust into the air-passages, and some are very simple and worthy of adoption. The practice of wearing a respirator, or a veil over the mouth and nostrils, with the growth of the beard and mustache, may be cited as examples. The objection usually made to the respirator is the expense, but one made of cork can be obtained from the chemist's for a shilling. The mid-day meal should never be taken in the workshop, and the hands should be washed before going out to dinner. These may seem little matters, but only those who have worked for patients know how constantly they are neglected. In dusty occupations the pores of the skin get blocked up, and the system becomes clogged to perform its functions. Normally it acts as a direct purifier of the blood, being associated with the kidneys and lungs in this office.—Family Physician.

WOMAN'S INSTUTION.

Nearly Always Right in her Judgment in Regard to Common Things.

An old gentleman over seventy, came into the city from his farm without his overcoat. The day turned chilly and he was obliged to forego his trip to the fair.

To a friend who remonstrated with him for going away from home thus unprotected, he said: "I thought was going to be warm; my wife told me to take my overcoat, but I wouldn't. Women have more sense than men anyway."

A frank admission.

Woman's good sense is said to come from intuition; may it not be that they are more close observers of little things. One thing is certain, that they are apt to strike the nail on the head in all the ordinary problems of life, more frequently than the lords of creation.

"According to Dr. Alice Bennett, who recently read a paper on Bright's disease before the Pennsylvania State Medical Society, persons subject to bilious attacks and sick headaches, who have crawling sensations, like the flowing of water in the head, who are tired all the time and have unexplained attacks of sudden weakness, may well be suspected of dangerous tendencies in the direction of Bright's disease."

The veteran newspaper correspondent, Joe Howard, of the New York Press, in noting this statement suggests: "Possibly Alice is correct in her diagnosis, but why doesn't she give some idea of treatment? I know a man who has been tried all the time for ten years. Night before last he took two doses of calomel and yesterday he wished he hadn't."

"A proper answer is found in the following letter of Mrs. Davis, wife of Rev. Wm. J. Davis, of Basil, O., June 21st, 1890:

"I do not hesitate to say that I owe my life to Warner's Safe Cure. I had a constant hemorrhage from my kidneys for more than five months. The Physicians could do nothing for me, my husband spent hundreds of dollars and I was not relieved. I was under the care of the most eminent medical men in the state. The hemorrhage ceased before I had taken one bottle of the Safe Cure. I can safely and cheerfully recommend it to all who are sufferers of kidney troubles."

A man of light disposition should never be made the cashier of a bank.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Contagious Blood Diseases.

The horror of blood diseases is the fact that they are contagious. Eczema, Salt rheum, Itch, and other skin diseases may be contracted by using the same towel, and thus if frequently happens a whole family becomes infected with the disease. Some member has contracted elsewhere. It is obviously the sacred duty of anyone who suffers from a blood disease to rid their system of the impurity. This can easily and quickly be done by using Dr. Bull's Sarsaparilla, the only medicine which completely blood purifier in the world. Its virtue is exclusively its own, and no other medicine can compare with it in strength or efficiency. Any druggist will get it for you. Take no other. Observe its size and test its virtue.—Washington Observer.

Ted—"I'm going to run him a race for Dolly's hand." Ned—"Then it will be a sack race for one of you."—The Week's Sport.

Dr. John Bull of Louisville, Ky., showed his love for little children when he invented the "Dolly's" little candies he named Dr. Bull's Worm Destroyers. It's fun for the children but it's death to the worms.

Fame is a glorious thing to achieve, but a small salary is more negotiable.—Binghamton Leader.

A DUTY TO YOURSELF.

It is surprising that people will use a common, ordinary pill when they can secure a valuable English one for syphilis poisoning. Ulcers, Eruptions and Pimples. It purifies the whole system and thoroughly builds up the constitution.

Pronounced Hopeless, Yet Saved.

From a letter written by Mrs. Ann E. Hurd of Groton, S. D., we quote: "Was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my Lungs, cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth. I would meet my moment alone. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles, and I am cured and feel like a new woman. I am now a well and hearty woman." Trial bottles free at the H. B. Garner Drug Co.
